1. The Agreement between you and us

1.1. The Agreement between you and us is made up of the following documents: These Terms and Conditions, the Client Agreement, the Conflicts of Interest Policy, the Summary of Best Interest and Order Execution Policy, the Risk Disclosure and Warnings Notice, the Client Classification Policy, the Investor Compensation Fund document, the Complaints Procedure for Clients and our Fees and Charges Schedule. These documents set out the terms upon which the Company will offer Services to the Client, the rights and obligations of both Parties and also include important information which we are required as an authorized Cyprus Investment Firm to provide to our prospective Clients under Applicable Regulation. By applying for our Services, you are consenting to all the above-mentioned documents which form the Agreement and it means that in the event that you are accepted by us as our Client, you and we shall be bound by these. For this reason, you are advised to read all the above-mentioned documents and any other letters or notices sent by us carefully and make sure that you understand and agree with them before entering into an agreement with us. You are also advised to read our Terms and Conditions for the use of the Website Cookies Policy and Privacy Policy available on our Website.

1.2. If you are a consumer (and not a corporate Client) and we do not meet face to face to conclude this Agreement, but instead our communication is done through a website, as over the telephone, or by written correspondence (including e-mail), then the Distance Marketing of Financial Services Law N. 242(I)/2004, as amended, applies and we shall send you by email the documents above that form the Agreement. You have the right to ask for the Agreement to be sent to you by post.

1.3. If we do not meet in person to conclude the Agreement but you still wish to have it signed you may print it and sign two copies of the Client Agreement and sent them back to us. We shall keep one copy for our records and send you back the other one signed by us as well.

1.4. The Agreement shall take effect and commence upon the receipt by the Client of a notice sent by the Company informing the Client that he has been accepted as the Company’s Client and that a Client Account has been opened for him. If the Client meets with the Company face to face to conclude the Agreement, then the Agreement shall come into force and effect on signature date.

1.5. The Agreement overrides any other agreements, arrangements, express or implied statements made by the Company or any Introducer(s).

Section C – Client Acceptance

3. Client Application

3.1. After the Client fills in and submits the Account Opening Application Form together with all the required identification documentation required by the Company for its own internal checks, the Company will send him a notice informing him whether he has been accepted as a Client of the Company. It is understood that the Company is not to be required (and may be unable under Applicable Regulations) to accept a person as its Client until all documentation it requires has been received by the Company, properly and fully completed by such person and all internal Company checks (including without limitation anti-money laundering checks, appropriateness or suitability tests as the case may be) have been satisfied. It is further understood that the Company reserves the right to impose additional due diligence requirements to accept Clients residing in certain countries.

3.2 In the event that a Client is accepted, the Company shall open a Trading Account in their name which will allow the Client to place Orders.

4. Client Classification

4.1. According to Applicable Regulations, the Company has to categorize its Clients in one of the following categories: Retail Client, Professional Client or Eligible Counterparty. The categorization shall depend on the information provided by the Client in his Account Opening Application Form and according to the method of categorization as this method is explained under the “Client Classification Policy”. By accepting this Agreement, the Client accepts application of such method. The Company will inform the Client of his categorization according to Applicable Regulations. The Client has the right to request different categorization. Categorization as a retail client offers greater protection. Retail clients are entitled to more detailed information under Applicable Regulations. The Company cannot enter into title transfer financial collateral arrangements with retail clients. Remuneration practices which could provide an incentive to the Company’s staff to recommend a particular financial instrument to a retail client when the Company could offer a different financial instrument which would better meet that client’s needs are also prohibited. In the case of professional clients and eligible counterparties, the Company may agree to provide more limited information as provided by Applicable Regulations.

4.2. The Client accepts that when categorising the Client and dealing with him, the Company will rely on the accuracy, completeness and correctness of the information provided by the Client in his Account Opening Application Form and the Client has the responsibility to immediately notify the Company in writing if such information changes at any time thereafter.

4.3. It is understood that the Company has the right to review the Client's Categorisation and change his Categorisation if this is deemed necessary (subject to Applicable Regulations) and inform the Client accordingly of the change before it comes into effect by providing the Client with advance notice of at least five (5) Business Days. Changing the Client's Categorization may also mean changing the type of Client Account of the Client. The Client shall be treated as accepting the change on that date unless, before then, the Client informs the Company that the Client wishes to terminate the Agreement and not accept the change.

5. Assessment

5.1. In providing the Service of Reception and Transmission and Execution of Client Orders, the Company is obliged under Applicable Regulations to seek information from a Client or potential Client regarding his knowledge and experience in the investment field relevant to the specific type of service or Financial Instrument offered or demanded, so as to enable the Company to assess whether the service or Financial Instrument is appropriate for the Client. Where the Client or potential Client elects not to provide the information regarding his knowledge and experience, or where he provides insufficient information regarding his knowledge and experience, the Company will not be able to determine whether the service or Financial Instrument is appropriate for him. The Company shall assume that information about his knowledge and experience provided from the Client to the Company is accurate and complete and the Company shall have no responsibility to the Client if such information is incomplete or misleading or changes or becomes inaccurate and the Company will be deemed to have performed its obligations under Applicable Regulations, unless the Client has informed the Company of such changes.

Section D – Services

6. Investment and Ancillary Services

6.1. Subject to the Client fulfilling his obligations hereunder, the Company will provide the Client with the following Services:

- (a) The Investment Services of Reception, Transition and Execution of Orders in Financial Instruments.

- (b) Dealing on Own Account.
- (c) Safekeeping and administration of Financial Instruments of the Client, including custodianship and related services such as cash/collateral management of Money of the Client.
- (d) Foreign Currency Services provided they are associated with the provision of the reception and transmission service of paragraph 6.1. (a) and (b).
- (e) Granting credits or loans to an investor to allow him to carry out a transaction in one or more financial instruments, where the firm granting the credit or loan is involved in the transaction.

6.2. It is understood that the Company offers its Services in relation to various Financial Instruments. However, the Client may be allowed to trade only in one or some of those Financial Instruments, according to his Classification or Client Account limits.

6.3 In the case where the Client is a legal person it is obliged to obtain a legal entity identifier from an appropriate authority duly licensed to provide legal entity identifiers. In the case of a legal person, the Client may not (where provided by Applicable Regulations) be able to execute any Transactions with the Company if it does not possess a legal entity identifier.

6.4 The Company will not provide delivery of any underlying asset of a Financial Instrument in relation to any trade through the Customer's trading account.

7. Advice and Commentary

7.1. The Company will not advise the Client about the merits of a particular Order or give him any form of investment advice and the Client acknowledges that the Services hereunder do not include the provision of investment advice in Financial Instruments. The Client alone will decide how to handle his Client Account and place Orders and take relevant decisions based on his own judgment.

7.2. The Company will not be under any duty to provide the Client with any legal, tax or other advice relating to any Transaction. The Client may wish to seek independent advice before entering into a Transaction.

7.3. The Company may, from time to time and at its discretion, provide the Client (or in newsletters which it may post on its Website or provide to subscribers via its Website or otherwise) with information, news, market commentary or other information but not as part of its Services to the Client. Where it does so:

- a) The Company will not be responsible for such information.

- b) The Company gives no representation, warranty or guarantee as to the accuracy, correctness or completeness of such information or as to the tax or legal consequences of any related Transaction.
- c) This information is provided solely to enable the Client to make his own investment decisions and does not amount to investment advice or unsolicited financial promotions to the Client.
- d) If the document contains a restriction on the person or category of persons for whom that document is intended or to whom it is distributed, the Client agrees that he will not pass it on to any such person or category of persons.
- e) The Client accepts that prior to despatch, the Company may have acted upon it itself to made use of the information on which it is based. The Company does not make representations as to the time of receipt by the Client and cannot guarantee that he will receive such information at the same time as other clients.

7.4. It is understood that market commentary, news, or other information provided or made available by the Company are subject to change and may be withdrawn at any time without notice.

Section E – Safekeeping of Financial Instruments and Client Money Rules

8. Client Money Handling Rules

8.1. The Company will promptly place any Client money it receives into one or more segregated account(s) with reliable financial institutions chosen by the Company such as a credit institution, or a bank or a qualifying money market fund. According to Applicable Regulations, the Company shall exercise due skill, care and diligence in the selection and appointment and periodic review of the financial institutions and the arrangements for holding of Client money. The Company takes into account the expertise and market reputation of such institutions with the view of ensuring the protection of Client's rights, diversification, as well as any legal or regulatory requirements or market practices related to holding of Client money that could adversely affect the Client's rights. Diversification requirements will not apply to client money placed with a third party merely for the purpose of executing a Transaction for the Client. It is understood that the Company may keep merchant accounts in its name with payment services providers which are used to settle payments of its Clients. However, it is noted that such merchant account is not used for safekeeping of client money but only to effect settlements of payment transactions.

8.2. The Client funds will at all times be segregated from the Company's own money and cannot be used in the course of its own business. It is understood that the Company may hold Client money and the money of other clients in the same account with a financial institution (omnibus account).

8.3. The third party / financial institution mentioned in paragraph 8.1. where the Client money is held may have a security interest, lien or right of set-off in relation to that money only to the extent that these relate to the Client or provision of services to the Client, unless this is required by applicable law in a third country jurisdiction in which the client money may be held. If this will apply, the Company will amend the Client Agreement accordingly to reflect this.

8.4. Client money may be held on the Client's behalf with a third party financial institution (of paragraph 8.1.) within or outside Cyprus. The legal and regulatory regime applying to any such financial institution outside Cyprus will be different from that of Cyprus and in the event of the insolvency or any other equivalent failure of that third party / financial institution, the Client's money may be treated differently from the treatment which would apply if the money was held in a segregated account in Cyprus. In the event of the insolvency or any other analogous proceedings in relation to that third party / financial institution, the Company may only have an unsecured claim against the third party / financial institution on behalf of the Client, and the Client will be exposed to the risk that the money received by the Company from the third party / financial institution is insufficient to satisfy the claims of the Client with claims in respect of the relevant account.

8.5. The Company shall not pay to the Client any interest earned on Client money (other than profit gained through trading Transactions from his Client Account(s) under this Agreement) and the Client waives all right to interest.

8.6. The Company may deposit Client money in overnight deposits and will be allowed to keep any interest.

8.7. It is agreed that the Company shall have the right to transfer the Client Money to successors or assignees or transferees or buyers, with 15 Business Days Prior Written Notice to the Client for the purposes of paragraph 4.2. hereunder.

8.8 The Company shall not conclude title transfer financial collateral arrangements with any Client who is a retail client for the purpose of securing or covering present or future, actual or contingent or prospective obligations of such Client.

9. Safekeeping of Client Financial Instruments

9.1. The Company shall open an account(s) in its names with a bank, or Custodian, or a Stock Market, or registrar, or another authorised institution (according to Applicable Regulations) in order to perform safekeeping of Client Financial Instruments together with Financial Instruments of other clients and perform Client Orders. According to Applicable Regulations, the Company shall exercise due skill, care and diligence in the selection and appointment and periodic review of the financial institutions and the arrangements for holding of Client Financial Instruments. The Company takes into account the expertise and market reputation of such institutions with the view of ensuring the protection of Client's rights, diversification, as well as any legal or regulatory requirements or market practices related to holding of Client Financial Instruments that could adversely affect the Client's rights. The Company shall keep an internal record at any moment in time to know what Financial Instruments belong to the Client.

9.2. The Client Financial Instruments will at all times be segregated from the Company's own.

9.3. The Company shall not grant security interests, liens or rights of set-off over Client Financial Instruments enabling a third party to dispose of the Client's Financial Instruments in order to recover debts that do not relate to the Client or provision of services to the Client, unless this is required by applicable law in a third country jurisdiction in which the client money may be held. If the Company will enter into such an agreement, it will amend the Client Agreement accordingly to reflect this.

9.4. Client Financial Instruments may be held on the Client's behalf with a third party (of paragraph 9.1.) within or outside Cyprus. The legal and regulatory regime applying to any such financial institution outside Cyprus may be different from that of Cyprus and in the event of the insolvency or any other equivalent failure of that third party, the Client's Financial Instruments may be treated differently from the treatment which would apply if the money was held in a segregated account in Cyprus. In the event of the insolvency or any other analogous proceedings in relation to that third, the Company may only have an unsecured claim against the third party on behalf of the Client, and the Client will be exposed to the risk that the money received by the Company from the third party is insufficient to satisfy the claims of the Client with claims in respect of the relevant account.

9.5. The Client is entitled to instruct the Company at any time to withdraw all or a part of the Client's Financial Instruments from the Client's Account(s), according to the provisions of paragraph 14 hereunder.

9.6. It is agreed that the Company shall have the right to transfer the Client Financial Instruments to successors or assignees or transferees or buyers, with 15 Business Days prior Written Notice to the Client for the purposes of paragraph 42.2. hereunder.

9.7. The Company shall send on a monthly basis to the Client a statement in a durable medium of the Client Financial Instruments that it holds on behalf of the Client as provided by Applicable Regulations, unless it has already provided such information in any other periodic statement. If the Client requests such a statement more frequently, it will be provided with any additional cost.

9.8. The Company will appoint a single officer of sufficient skill and authority with specific responsibility for the safeguarding of client financial instruments and funds.

10. Lien

10.1. Without prejudice and in addition to any general lien, right of set-off or other similar right which the Company or its Affiliates may be entitled to exercise whether by law or otherwise over any of Client's money or Financial instruments, the Client's money and Financial Instruments shall be subject to a general lien in favour of the Company or its Affiliates, insofar as there remain any outstanding amounts due or liabilities (whether actual or contingent) outstanding from the Client to the Company or its Affiliates.

11. Investor Compensation Fund

11.1. The Company is a member of the Investors Compensation Fund (ICF). So, depending on the Client's Classification, the Client may be entitled to compensation from the ICF in the event that the Company is unable to meet its obligations. More details are found in the Company's document "Investors Compensation Fund".

Section F – Client Account

12. Client Account

12.1. The Company shall open one or more a Client Account(s) for the Client to allow him to place Orders in particular Financial Instruments.

12.2. It is agreed and understood that the Company reserves the right to offer different types of Client Accounts from time to time with different characteristics or requirement, and which will be subject to change at the Company's discretion.

12.3. The Client Account shall be activated upon the Client depositing the initial monetary deposit depending in the Client Account Type, there may be a minimum initial deposit as determined and mended by the Company in its discretion from time to time.

13. Deposits of Money

13.1. The Client may deposit funds into the Client Account at any time during the course of this Agreement. Deposits will be made via the methods and in the currencies accepted by the Company from time to time.

13.2. The Company shall have the right to request from the Client at any time any documentation to confirm the source of funds deposited into the Client Account. The Company shall have the right to reject a deposit of the Client if the Company is not duly satisfied as to the legality of the source of funds and resend them back to the sender.

13.3. If the Client makes a deposit, the Company shall credit the relevant Client Account with the relevant amount actually received by the Company (until 13.00 CET) within three Business Days following the amount is cleared in the bank account of the Company.

13.4. If the funds sent by the Client are not deposited in the Client Account when they were supposed to, the Client shall notify the Company and request from the Company to make a banking investigation of the transfer. The Client agrees that any charges of the investigation shall be paid by the Client and deducted from his Client Account or paid directly to the bank performing the investigation. The Client understands and agrees that in order to perform the investigation the Client shall have to provide the Company with the requested documents and certificates.

14. Withdrawal of Money and Financial Instruments

14.1. The Company shall make withdrawals of Client funds and / or Financial Instruments upon the Company receiving a relevant withdrawal instruction from the Client in the method accepted by the Company from time to time. Standard forms of withdrawal instructions establishing the minimum data to be provided by the Client are available upon request. The Company reserves the right to reject any Client withdrawal instruction executed in the form other than approved by the Company.

14.2. Any withdrawal instruction submitted in writing in a paper form (scanned copy or original copy) shall be valid only if signed by the Client or its Authorized Representative. If the Client is a corporate body the corporate seal, if any, shall be affixed to any Order given in writing.

14.3. Client withdrawal instructions sent to the Company out of the Company's normal working hours, when the Company is closed and/or when it is not a Business Day, are and shall be binding on the Client. Such instructions shall be considered sent by the Client and received by the Company at the first Business Day following the day they were actually sent.

14.4. Should the Company need to obtain from the Client certain documents necessary for the execution of and settlement under any withdrawal instruction, including an authorization entitling the Company to exercise legal rights or practical actions, the Client shall provide such documents within reasonable time, unless specific time frames are set by the Company in its request. The Company is allowed to refrain from performing Client's instruction until it has received all documents requested from the Client.

14.5. Upon the Company receiving an instruction from the Client to withdraw funds from the Client Account (until 13.00 CET), the Company shall make the transfer, if the following requirements are met:

- (a) the withdrawal instruction includes all required information;
- (b) the instruction is to make a transfer of Money to the originating account (whether that is a bank account, a payment system account etc.) from which the money was originally deposited in the Client Account or at the Client's request to a bank account belonging to the Client;
- (c) the account where the transfer is to be made belongs to the Client;
- (d) at the moment of payment, the Client's Balance in his Client Account exceeds the amount specified in the withdrawal instruction including all payment charges;
- (e) there is no Force Majeure event which prohibiting the Company from effecting the withdrawal;
- (f) if the Client is not using SEPA, then the transfer of money may be more than three working days depending on the actual transfer method chosen by the Client.

14.6. It is agreed and understood that the Company will not accept third party or anonymous payments in the Client Account and will not to make withdrawals of money and Financial Instruments to any other third party or anonymous account.

14.7. The Company reserves the right to reasonably decline a withdrawal request of the Client asking for a specific transfer method and the Company has the right to suggest an alternative.

14.8. All payment and transfer charges of third parties will be borne by the Client and the Company shall debit the relevant Client Account for these charges.

14.9. The Client may send the request for internal transfer of funds or/and Financial Instruments to another Client Account held by him with the Company. Such internal transfers shall be subject to the Company's policy from time to time.

14.10. Mistakes made by the Company during transfer of funds and Financial Instruments shall be refunded to the Client. It is understood that should the Client provide wrong instructions for a transfer; the Company may be unable to correct the mistake and the Client may have to suffer the loss.

14.11. Transfers of money will be made within one Business Day.

14.12. Withdrawal of Client's Financial Instruments shall be effected upon deductions of all sums due to the Company, its Affiliates and/or third parties possessing any interest in Client's Financial Instruments and the Company is obliged to ensure such withdrawal within the shortest possible period of time.

15. Inactive and Dormant Client Accounts

- b) Order date;
- c) Transaction type;
- d) Name of Financial Instrument;
- e) Issuer name, if applicable;

- f) Financial Instruments quantity;
- g) Minimum or maximum price denominated in the relevant currency, if applicable;
- h) Settlement currency;
- i) The date when the Order becomes invalid if not executed by the Company (if not indicated by the Client, the Order validity period is determined based on relevant exchange rules /market practice);
- j) Execution venue (if not indicated by the Client, execution venue may be determined by the Company in accordance with the Company's Best Execution Policy);
- k) Other relevant information which the Client considers essential.

16.3. Orders placed with the Company with the use of identification such as password or signature of authorised person or other means of identifications, shall be binding on the Client.

16.4. Any Order submitted in writing in a paper form (scanned copy or original copy) shall be valid only if signed by the Client or its Authorized Representative. If the Client is a corporate body the corporate seal, if any, shall be affixed to any Order given in writing.

16.5. Orders may be placed within the normal trading hours of the Company, available upon request as amended from time to time. Client Orders sent to the Company out of the Company's normal working hours, when the Company is closed and/or when it is not a Business Day, are and shall be binding for the Client. Such Orders shall be considered sent by the Client and received by the Company at the first Business Day following the day they were actually sent.

16.6. Should the Company need to obtain from the Client certain documents necessary for the execution of and settlement under any Order, including an authorization entitling the Company to exercise legal rights or practical actions, the Client shall provide such documents within reasonable time, unless specific time frames are set by the Company in its request. The Company is allowed to refrain from performing Client's Order until it has received all documents requested from the Client.

17. Orders via E-mail or Fax

17.1 Orders forwarded by the Client to the Company by e-mail or fax shall be executed in a form, approved by the Company and shall be signed by the Client and sealed, if applicable.

17.2. If an Order contains corrections and/or omissions and therefore cannot be unambiguously construed and executed, the Company shall immediately contact the Client and request necessary clarifications. The Client shall promptly prepare and deliver to the Company a new Order containing supplements and/or amendments required.

17.3. Any Order sent by e-mail or by fax shall at least meet minimum quality requirements, that is, it shall be readable. Otherwise, the Company will not be able to accept and execute such Order and will promptly notify the Client accordingly.

18. Orders by Phone

18.1. Any Client Orders via phone shall be given to the Company to the phone number, specifically designated by the Company for giving Orders. This will be disclosed to the Client.

18.2. For the purposes of giving an Order to the Company by phone the Client shall pass through the relevant identification procedure, which shall involve the use of a password.

18.3. Each Order communicated by phone shall be formulated by the Client in writing and sent to the Company not later than the day following the day of the Order given by phone.

19. Execution of Client Orders

19.1 Orders are executed according to the “Summary of Best Interest and Order Execution Policy”, which are binding on the Client, but in each case subject to the market rules applicable to the relevant Transaction, provided for in the Order, and relevant provisions of the Applicable Regulations.

19.2. The Client fully understands that any Client’s Order containing specific conditions may preclude the Company from applying provisions, formulated in the “Summary of Best Interest and Order Execution Policy” for the purposes of obtaining the best results in execution of such Orders.

19.3. The Company will use reasonable efforts to execute an Order, but it is agreed and understood that despite the Company’s reasonable efforts transmission or execution may not always be achieved at all for reasons beyond the control of the Company.

19.4. Unless otherwise instructed by the Client, the Company may consolidate (execute simultaneously) aggregated similar Orders in accordance with the principles of consolidation and fair allocation described in the Company Order Allocation Policy, being the part of the “Summary of Best Interest and Order Execution Policy”.

19.5. Limit Orders placed by the Client will be executed by the Company based on the current market situation by means of acceptance of a quotation of another market participant.

19.6. Where the Client places a Limit Order in shares which are admitted to trading on a regulated market and that Order is not immediately executed due to prevailing market conditions, the Client hereby expressly instructs the Company and the Company may, but will not be required to, make public the order in a manner which is easily accessible to other market participants.

19.7. Stop-Limit Orders will be executed by the Company as limit Orders at the “execution price” specified by the Client in the Stop-Limit Order provided that the market reaches the “condition price” specified by the Client in the Stop-Limit Order. The moment the market reaches certain price is the moment when information on execution of at least one transaction at this price is received from the trading system.

20. Cancellation of Orders

20.1. If the Client wishes to change the terms of any Order, the Client shall give a new Order, cancelling the previous one.

20.2. Any Order can be cancelled /modified (in full or in non-executed part) only if it has not been yet executed by the time of receipt by the Company of the request from the Client, unless otherwise stated in the Order. In case the Order has been already executed, the Client will be informed immediately of the fact over the phone or otherwise as provided herein.

20.3. If for technical reasons a trader of the Company cannot send to the market a cancellation (amendment) request for the non-execution of the Order (execution of the Order on amended terms), the Company must inform the Client immediately of this fact over the phone or otherwise as provided herein.

21. Rejection of Client’s Orders

21.1. Without prejudice to any other provisions herein, the Company is entitled, at any time and at its discretion, to restrict the Client’s trading activity, to cancel Orders, refuse to execute any Order of the Client, and the Client has no right to claim any damages, specific performance or compensation whatsoever from the Company, in any of the following cases:

- (a) in consequence of request of regulatory or supervisory authorities of Cyprus or a court order or antifraud or anti-money laundering authorities;
- (b) a Force Majeure Event has occurred;
- (c) in an Event of Default of the Client;
- (d) where the Company reasonably believes that it will be impossible to execute such Order in whole or in part due to detrimental market conditions or other reasons beyond the reasonable control of the Company. In that case the Company shall take all reasonable measures to inform the Client of this fact by telephone or otherwise within reasonable time;
- (e) where the Transaction specified in the Client's Order falls under the prohibited transactions list for that Client. The Client will be informed of this fact over phone or in writing;
- (f) the Company considers that the funds and/or financial instruments in respect of which the order is given are insufficient to execute and/or settle the order (total consideration including any associated costs and expenses exceeds the client assets available) or the Client assets are encumbered with rights of third parties, including the same of the Company and execution of the order will result in violation of these rights;
- (g) in case of provision by the Client of incomplete/inadequate information in the Order;
- (h) the Company has doubts with regard to authenticity of the signature and/or the seal of the Client/Authorized Representative;
- (i) in case of failure by the Client to perform its payment obligations in respect of any incontestable amounts payable to the Company under any Agreement within five Business Days from the relevant due date;
- (j) Company has sent a notice of Termination of the Agreement to the Client.

21.2. Notwithstanding the above, the Company retains the right to force close a Trade if the prices quoted on the Exchange change such that the total Difference payable by the Client pursuant to all of their open Transaction equals or exceeds the total Maintenance Margin for all such Transactions, or the amount in their Trading Account is equal to or less than the total Maintenance Margin for all of the Client's open Transaction(s), or if the Company receives a charge-back from their credit card issuer or with respect to any other payment method for any reason, the Client acknowledges that the Company has the right, in their discretion, to immediately close any and all of the Client's Open Positions whether at a loss or a profit without any prior notice to the Client. The exercise of the Company's right to force close the Client's Open Positions will not result in termination of their Trading Account or of this Agreement, unless the Company sends the Client a notice of termination.

22. Settlement and Currency Conversion

22.1. The Company shall settle Transactions executed by the Company without any additional instructions from the Client and without any notice to the same.

22.2. For the settlement purposes, the Client Transactions can be consolidated and/or netted (set-off) by the Company at its sole discretion. Such consolidation and/or netting (set-off) shall be reflected in the Client trading report sent by the Company to the Client.

22.3. Settlement of Transactions shall be made in the currency of the Transaction. The Client agrees that if it does not specify the currency for trade settlement and unless otherwise agreed upon by the Company and the Client, the Company shall settle a Transaction in the settlement currency determined in accordance with the market rules. In case the market rules provide for the settlement in a number of currencies the Company shall have the right to settle a Transaction in any currency in its reasonable discretion.

22.4. In case the Client gives Orders for trading in Financial Instruments to the Company denominated in a currency other than the Currency of the Client Account, the Company shall arrange for the relevant currency conversion. The Company shall conduct currency conversion at a reasonable market rate and/or a bank rate whichever the Company considers appropriate acting in the best interests of the Client. The exchange rate obtained may be subsequently communicated to the Client upon request.

22.5. The Company is entitled (but shall not in any circumstances be obliged) to arrange the conversion of:

- (a) any realized gain, loss, option premium, commission, interest charge and brokerage fee which arises in a currency other than the currency in which the Client's Account is denominated;
- (b) any monetary funds held by the Company for the Client into such other currency, as the Company considers necessary or desirable to cover the Client's obligations and liabilities in that currency.

22.6. The Client expressly agrees that the Company shall have the right to charge the Client for currency conversion or retain a mark-up from the exchange of currency, set out in the Company's "Fees and Costs Schedule" signed by each Client. The Company shall be entitled to charge the Client and retain funds to compensate the expenses incurred with regard to currency conversions, including commissions to banks, money transfer fees, commissions to intermediaries, etc.

23. Netting and Set- Off

23.1. If the aggregate amount payable by the Client is equal to the aggregate amount payable by the Company, then automatically the mutual obligations to make payment are set-off and cancel each other. If the aggregate amount payable by one party exceeds the aggregate amount payable by the other party, then the party with the larger aggregate amount shall pay the excess to the other party and all obligations to make payment will be automatically satisfied and discharged.

23.2. The Company has the right to combine all or any Client Accounts opened in the Client name and to consolidate the Balances in such accounts and to set-off such Balances in the event of Termination of the Agreement.

24. Reporting and Trade Confirmations

24.1. Under and as provided by Applicable Regulations, the Company shall provide the Client with reporting on his Orders in a durable medium. The Client will be informed inter alia, as provided by Applicable Regulations, of the trading date, time, type of Order, venue identification, instrument identification, the buy/sell indicator, the nature of the Order, the unit quantity, total consideration, total sum of commissions and expenses and, where the client so requests, an itemised breakdown, the Client's Counterparty, the rate of exchange obtained where the transaction involves a conversion of currency and the client's responsibilities in relation to the settlement of the transaction. The Client will be informed ex-ante and ex-post about the costs and associated charges related to his Orders as provided by Applicable Regulations.

24.2 The Company will (unless exempted from doing so under Applicable Regulations) send a notice to the client in a durable medium as provided by Applicable Regulations confirming execution of the Order. Such notification will include the information provided in Applicable Regulations.

24.3 Furthermore, the Company shall supply the Client, on request, with information about the status of his Order.

24.4. If the Client has a reason to believe that the Confirmation is wrong or if the Client does not receive any Confirmation when he should, the Client shall contact the Company 10 (ten) Business Days from the date the Company of the Order was sent or ought to have been sent (in the event that a Confirmation was not sent). If the Client expresses no objections during this period, the content is considered as approved by him and shall be deemed conclusive.

24.5 The Company will, depending on the Transaction and on whether it should be reported under Applicable Regulations, report the Transactions to the competent authority as provided by Applicable Regulations as quickly as possible and no later than the close of the following Business Day.

24.6 Trade reporting (“Post-trade transparency”). For transactions executed outside a Trading Venue, in financial instruments that are traded on a Trading Venue, the Company has to publish certain information. This requirement applies to shares, depositary receipts, exchange traded-funds, certificates and other similar financial instruments as well as to bonds, structured finance products and derivatives. The information will be made public via an Approved Publication Arrangement (“APA”).

Section H – Remuneration and Other Payments

25. Our Fees

25.1. The provision of the Services by the Company is subject to payment of Company commission and fees, which appear in the Fees and Costs Schedule which are communicated to the client and are available on request. The Company shall debit all commissions and fees due and owed to the Company from the Client’s Account(s) without giving any notification to or obtaining any consent from the Client.

25.2. If at any time funds freely available on the Client’s Account with the Company are not sufficient to pay commission and fees payable to the Company the Client shall promptly deposit additional funds to cover the deficiency. If the Client fails to make the said deposit within 5 (five) Business Days from the date of the relevant notification sent by the Company to the Client, the Company may proceed with the sale of Financial Instruments from the Client’s Account(s) without further notice to the Client. The Company will then notify the Client.

25.3. The Company shall have the right to review its Fees and Costs Schedule, from time to time. Such changes shall be effected via email or may be notified directly to the Client in another durable medium. In the absence of a Force Majeure event, the Company shall be providing the Client with advance notice via email of at least 15 Business Days. The Client shall be treated as accepting the change on that date unless, before then, the Client informs the Company that the Client wishes to terminate the Agreement and not accept the change. The Client shall not have to pay any charges as a result of terminating in this case, other than costs due and payable for Services offered until the termination.

26. Taxes

26.1. Unless otherwise stated in the Terms and Conditions, the Company shall not act as a tax-paying agent for the Client. It is agreed and understood that the Client shall be solely responsible for all filings, tax returns and reports which should be made to any relevant authority, whether governmental or otherwise, and for payment of all taxes (including but not limited to any transfer or value added taxes), arising out of or in connection with his trading activity with the Company hereunder.

26.2. The Client undertakes to pay all stamp expenses relating to this Agreement and any documentation which may be required for the currying out of the transactions under this Agreement.

26.3. In cases where, according to the Applicable Regulations, responsibility for withholding the Client's taxes from income related to securities, contracts or transactions is levied upon the Company or any other person, the Company or such person are entitled to withhold such taxes from the funds held by the Company for the Client and pay them in accordance with Applicable Regulations without Client's additional consent.

26.4. In case pursuant to the Applicable Regulations or otherwise the Company is required to withhold any taxes on income payable to the Client, it may require from the Client any such documents as it reasonably considers necessary for the due performance of its withholding obligations. The Client acknowledges that failure to provide any such documents required by the Company for the purposes specified herein or failure to provide such document in due time may result in a greater amount of tax withheld.

26.5. If at any time the Client's funds freely available at the Client's Account(s) with the Company are insufficient to effect tax payments the Client shall promptly deposit funds to cover the deficiency. If the Client fails to make the said deposit within 5 (five) Business Days from the date of the relevant notification sent by the Company to the Client, the Company may proceed with the sale of Financial Instruments from the Client's Account(s) without further notice to the Client unless otherwise agreed upon by the Company and the Client. The Company will then notify the Client.

27. Third Party Payments

27.1. The Client shall reimburse the Company, its Affiliates or third parties providing services to the Company the following expenses:

- (a) all expenses associated with conclusion, clearing and settlement of Transactions and other expenses that may arise in connection with the Transactions, including but not limited to, the payments of the registration fees, transfer agent fees, exchange fees, dues and other payments in favour of exchange through which a transaction has been made, bank fees, transaction fees and borrowing costs;
- (b) currency conversion fees;
- (c) money transfer fees.

27.2. Unless otherwise specified in the Terms and Conditions, all amounts due to the Company, its Affiliates or third parties engaged by the Company in connection with the provision of the Services to the Client hereunder shall be debited from the funds in the Client Account held with the Company for the Client without Client's additional consent. The Client authorizes the Company, at any time and without notice or liability to the Client, to sell, set-off and/or charge in any manner any or all of the Client's Financial Instruments of which the Company, its affiliates or any third party providing relevant services to the Company have custody or control, in order to discharge any or all of the Client's obligations towards the Company its affiliates or third party services providers. It is understood that once the Client places an Order, until such Order is executed and the Transaction is closed, the Maintenance Margin shall not be used as collateral and hence shall be unavailable for withdrawal.

28. Inducements

28.1. Should the Company pay or receive any fees, costs or inducements for the introduction of the Client, it shall notify the Client according to Applicable Regulations.

Section I – Communication and Client Information

29. Language

29.1. The Company's official language is the English language and the Client should always read and refer to the main Website for all information and disclosures about the Company and its activities. Translation or information provided in languages other than English is for informational purposes only and do not bind the Company or have any legal effect whatsoever, the Company having no responsibility or liability regarding the correctness of the information therein.

- (e) Liquidate any and all Client's positions in Financial Instruments. The rates applied to close positions shall be the market rates available at a day on which the Company decides to close the positions due to the Event of Default. The Company may in its reasonable discretion determine such rates by obtaining an offer from a market maker or apply the rates officially published in electronic financial information systems.
- (f) Sell, alienate or otherwise transfer any or all of the Financial Instruments which the Company or its Affiliates are holding or are entitled to receive on the Client's behalf and to apply the proceeds in or towards satisfaction of any obligation or liability the Client may have to the Company or its Affiliates (including any contingent, future or prospective obligation or liability arising from time to time).
- (g) Set off any obligation the Company or its Affiliates owe to the Client, and/or to apply any cash the Company or its Affiliates hold for the Client's account, against any obligation or liability the Client may have to the Company or its Affiliates (including any contingent, future or prospective obligation or liability arising from time to time).

33. Amendment of the Agreement

ZEMBLANCO INVESTMENTS LIMITED is licensed and regulated by the Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission as a Cyprus Investment Firm with License Number 277/15

33.1. The Company may upgrade the Client Account, convert Client Account type, introduce upgrade or replace a trading Platform or enhance the services offered to the Client if it reasonably considers this is to the Clients advantage and there is no increased cost to the Client.

33.2. The Company may also change any terms of the Agreement for any of the following reasons:

(a) Where the Company reasonably considers that:

- the change would make the terms of the Agreement easier to understand; or
- the change would not be to the disadvantage of the Client.

(b) To cover:

- the involvement of any service or facility the Company offers to the Client; or
- the introduction of a new service or facility; or
- the replacement of an existing service or facility with a new one; or
- the withdrawal of a service or facility which has become obsolete, or has ceased to be widely used, or has not been used by the Client at any time in the previous year, or it has become very expensive for the Company to offer.

(c) To enable the Company to make reasonable changes to the services offered to the Client as a result of changes in:

- the banking, investment or financial system; or
- technology; or

(d) As a result of a request of CySEC or of any other authority or as a result of change or expected change in Applicable Regulations.

(e) Where the Company finds that any term in the Agreement is inconsistent with Applicable Regulations. In such a case, it will not rely on that term but treat it as if it did reflect the relevant Applicable Regulations and shall update the Agreement to reflect the Applicable Regulations.

33.3. As long as the Client is able to end the Agreement without charge, the Company may change any of the terms of the Agreement for any reason not listed under paragraph 33.2.

33.4. For any change made paragraphs 33.2. and 33.3., the Company shall provide the Client with advance Written Notice of at least 15 Business Days. However, the Client acknowledges that a change which is made to reflect a change of Applicable Regulations may, if necessary, take effect immediately.

33.5. For any change in Agreement, where the Company elects to provide Written Notice via a post on the Website, the Company shall also provide the said Written Notice with an additional means of Written Notice.

33.6. When the Company provides Written Notice of changes under paragraphs 33.2 and 33.3. it shall tell the Client the date it comes into effect. The Client shall be treated as accepting the change on that date unless, before then, the Client informs the Company that the Client wishes to terminate the Agreement and not accept the change. The Client shall not have to pay any charges as a result of terminating in this case, other than costs due and payable for Services offered until the termination.

34. Termination and Results of Termination

34.1. Without prejudice to the Company's rights under this Agreement to terminate it immediately without prior notice to the Client, each Party may terminate this Agreement with immediate effect by giving Written Notice to the other Party. The Company shall have to provide at least 30 calendar days' notice.

34.2. Termination by any Party will not affect any obligation which has already been incurred by either Party or any legal rights or obligations which may already have arisen under the Agreement or any Transactions made hereunder.

34.3. Upon termination of this Agreement, all amounts payable by the Client to the Company will become immediately due and payable including (but without limitation) all outstanding costs and any other amounts payable to the Company, any charges and additional expenses incurred or to be incurred by the Company as a result of the termination of the Agreement.

34.4. Once notice of termination of this Agreement is sent the any or all of the following shall apply:

Within 15 calendar days upon receipt of the Notice, the Client shall submit an Instruction to the Company for Withdrawal of all of his Client Money and Financial Instruments available in his Client Account;

- (a) In absence of illegal activity or suspected illegal activity or fraud of the Client or instructions from the relevant authorities, any remaining Money or Financial Instruments in the Client's favour, the Company will (after withholding such amounts that in the Company's absolute discretion considers appropriate in respect of future liabilities) make the transfer of Money and Financial Instruments to the Client, as soon as reasonably practicable, and supply him with a statement showing how that Balance was arrived at and, where appropriate, instruct any Nominee or/and any Custodian to also make a transfer if applicable. It is understood that the Company will approve payments and transfers only to an account in the name of the Client. The Company has the right to refuse, at its discretion, to effect thirty party payments.
- (b) After such transfer is completed, the Client Account shall be closed;
- (c) If the Company does not receive from the Client the Instruction on transfer of the Client Money and Financial Instruments within specified term, it may, at its discretion take both or any of the following actions:
- continue to safekeeping the Client Money and Financial Instruments in the interests of the Client within the term not exceeding six months and the Client remains liable to the Company for the full amount of the Company expenses for safekeeping of Client Money and Financial Instruments (including, but not limited to commissions and fees of the relevant depositaries, custodians, etc.) payable up to the date of the full withdrawal of Money and Financial Instruments from the Client Account either by the Client or by the Company; and/or
 - Transfer the Client Money to the bank account used by the Client to fund his Account and sell the Financial Instruments of the Client and transfer the money derived from such sale to the Client's bank account, less the expenses incurred by the Company in connection with safekeeping and sale of the Client Money and Financial Instruments. In case such transfer of funds to the Client's bank account is impossible due to circumstances out of the Company reasonable control, the Client Account shall be rendered dormant.
- (d) The Company will be entitled to refuse to the Client to withdraw Money and Financial Instruments from the Client Account and the Company reserves the right to keep Client's money and Financial Instruments as necessary to close positions which have already been opened and/or pay any pending obligations of the Client under the Agreement;
- (e) The Company has the right to combine any Client Accounts of the Client, to consolidate the Balances in such Client Accounts and to set off those Balances;
- (f) The Company has the right to convert any currency;
- (g) The Client shall have to cancel the Client's pending Orders.

name, to offer guarantees against losses, to offer investment services or legal, investment or tax advice in our name or collect your money.

43.2. The Client acknowledges that the Company shall pay the Introducer with inducements for the introduction of Clients, calculated as a percentage on the Client's initial deposit with the Company. More details on such inducements will be disclosed to the Client upon request. In cases where the Client is introduced to the Company by the Introducer, the Company will disclose information in relation to these commissions to the Client on its website and/or by email as provided by Applicable Regulations. In such a case, the Company will, inform the Client on an individual basis about the actual amount of payments received, at least once a year.

44. Authorised Representative

44.1. The Company may in certain cases accept an Authorized Representative on behalf of the Client to place Orders to the Company or to handle any other matters related to the Client Account or this Agreement, provided the Client notifies the Company in writing of the appointment of an Authorized Representative and this person is approved by the Company fulfilling all of the Company specifications for this.

44.2. Unless the Company receives a written notification from the Client for the termination of the authorisation of Authorized Representative, the Company, without prejudice to paragraph 3.4 herein below, has the right to continue accepting Orders and/ or other instructions relating to the Client Account by the Authorized Representative on the Client's behalf and the Client will recognize such orders as valid and committing to him.

44.3. The written notification for the termination of the authorization of the Authorized Representative has to be received by the Company with at least 5 days' notice prior the termination of the authorization date.

44.4. The Company has the right (but NOT an obligation to the Client) to refuse to accept Orders and/ or other instructions relating to the Client Account from the Authorized Representative in any of the following cases:

- (a) if the Company reasonably suspects that the Authorized Representative is not legally allowed or properly authorized to act as such;
- (b) an Event of Default occurred;
- (c) in order for the Company to ensure compliance with the relevant market rules and or practices, Applicable Regulations or other applicable laws; or
- (d) in order to protect the interest of the Client.

45. Multiple Account Holders

45.1. Where the Client comprises two or more persons, the liabilities and obligations under the Agreement shall be joint and several. Any warning or other notice given to one of the persons which form the Client shall be deemed to have been given to all the persons who form the Client. Any Order given by one of the persons who form the Client shall be deemed to have been given by all the persons who form the Client.

45.2. In the event of the death or mental incapacity of one of the persons who form the Client, all funds held by the Company or its Nominee, will be for the benefit and at the order of the survivor(s) and all obligations and liabilities owed to the Company will be owed by such survivor(s).

46. Product governance

The Company has a policy in place to ensure that both our respective responsibilities towards the Client and the Company's product governance obligations are met. The Company is required to assess and define a target market for the investment products manufactured for, distributed or sold to the Client. As a distributor (seller) we will assess investments periodically and we will share information on investments so that we can take any appropriate steps to improve outcomes for the client (or the end client). Unless the Client tell the Company otherwise, the Company will assume that the Client is acting for its own account and not as a distributor for the purposes of these requirements.

The Company will make different products and services available in accordance with the Rules relating to the manufacturing and distribution of investments products. We may not be able to make certain investments products available to the Client, depending on the Client classification as a client and depending on the service the Company is providing to the Client.

Section K – Margin requirements

47. Margin Requirements and Margin Calls

47.1 In order to open a Position for an Underlying Asset, the Client undertakes to provide the Initial Margin in their Trading Account. In order to keep a Position Open, the Client undertakes to ensure that the amount in their Trading Account equals or exceeds the Maintenance Margin. The Initial Margin shall be defined by the Company.

47.2 The Client acknowledges that the Margin for each Underlying Asset differs. Deposits into The Client's Trading Account can be made by wire transfer or another method of payment, to a bank account, or other location, as the Company may notify to the Client from time to time. Based on the amount of money the Client has in their Trading Account, the Company retains the right to limit the amount and total number of open Transactions that the Client may wish to open or maintain.

47.3. Unless a Force Majeure Event has occurred (where margins can change without prior notice) and in the absence contradictory applicable regulation or legislation, the Company has the right to change the Margin requirements, giving to the Client three (3) Business Days Written Notice prior to these amendments. New Margin Requirements shall be applied for new positions.

47.4. The Client acknowledges that the Company may, suggest to the Client to take certain action in your Trading Account pursuant to a Margin Call which if not taken may result in a stop-out. A Margin Call may be based upon a number of factors, including without limitation, the Client's overall position, their account size, the number of open Transactions they have, volume traded, their trade history and market conditions. If any sub-account falls into negative equity, the Company reserves the right to transfer funds from one of the other sub-accounts in the structure to cover the deficit. Such transfer could cause one or more of the sub-accounts to be subject to stop-out. There may also be costs associated with such transfers, for example conversion fees if funds in different currencies are transferred. It is the client's responsibility to maintain positive balances and fulfil margin requirements on all individual sub-accounts as well as on an aggregate level.

47.5 Further to the above, in the event that the Company determines, that the Client voluntarily and/or involuntarily abuses the "Negative Balance Protection" offered by the Company, by way of, but not limited to, hedging his/her exposure using his/her Trading Account(s), whether under the same profile or in connection with another Client(s), then the Client accepts that the Company is entitled to treat this incident as a force majeure event and taken any or all of the actions outlined in paragraph 35 above. Note that Hedging is considered the act of entering into transactions or combination of transactions, such as holding long and short positions, in the same or correlated instruments at the same time, either by the Client or by the client acting in concert with others maintaining Trading Accounts with the Company.

47.6. Failure to meet the Margin Requirements at any time, gives the right to the Company, to close any and all Open Positions of the Client whether at a loss or a profit.

47.7. Margin shall be paid in monetary funds in the Currency of the Client Account.

47.8. The Client undertakes neither to create nor to have outstanding any security interest whatsoever over, nor to agree to assign or transfer, any of the Margin transferred to the Company.
